

(106)

A great pleasure, indeed, to see you again. And we look forward to reviewing that pleasure either in New York City or in Japan or in both.

Robert Halsband

28 Sept. 1957

I have been very pleased to meet you, Professor Nozaki, and your ideas will be of considerable help to us.

J. M. Thompson.

28 Sept. 1957.

It has been most interesting meeting you. Please accept my best wishes for a pleasant journey, and for your future researches.

R. G. Sampson.

28 Sept 57

It has been a pleasure to see you here as well as in Japan.

H. H. Anderson

30 Sept. '57

Richard W. Brooks

Microanalytical Lab.

Mesa 9 Co. Inc.

W. M. Hartman

Mesa 11 Lane II, Fundamental Research

Division, Mesa & Co. Inc. Sept. 30, 1957