4th September 1957. Chemistry Department. Imperial College. London.
It has been a great pleasure to meet Professor Noze again, and I hope we shall see him again before very long.

4th September 1957. Chemistry Department. Imperial College. London. I have greatly enjoyed talking with Professor Noze, and hope that it will not be another four years before an opportunity arises again. P. H. Weedon.
