	Dombrowski, A. (ed.): Wiley Blackwell Companion to Impressionism Series 'Blackwell Companions to Art History' 2021/05. HC. Approx. € 149.00 / £ 120.00 ISBN: 978-1-119-37389-6 Weblink: http://www.wiley-vch.de/publish/en/books/ISBN978-1-119-37389-6/ New research on Impressionism; new topics and methodologies in Impressionist studies; new scholarly, academic approaches to Impressionism Some scholars of modern art may find that the volume is not going far enough in new directions, such as critical race studies or the digital and environmental humanities, each covered by one contribution among thirty-four only. Given recent developments in academia, some scholars may note that only one scholar out of thirty-four is of African decent, even though scholars of different nationalities are included as well. The study of Impressionism has traditionally been dominated by Euro-American scholars.
	Anreus, A. / Greeley, R. / Sullivan, M. (eds.): A Companion to Modern and Contemporary Latin American and Latina/o Art Series 'Blackwell Companions to Art History' 2021/06. 608 pp. HC. Bringing together both Latin American and Latino Art issues in a single text . Cohesive critical methodology throughout (social art history, neo-Marxism) . Polemical proposals by its various authors . New research data regarding Latino Art in the USA Negative criticism will be from the elitist Latin American modernists on one side, and the extreme populism of the Latino scholars on the other
	Allen, C. (ed.): A Companion to Australian Art Series 'Blackwell Companions to Art History' 2021/06. HC. If it attracts criticism, it may be from those who think that academic history should be written in turgid academic jargon, or should adopt self-conscious ideological postures... or who disagree with my criticism of the art market and the contemporary art industry.
